

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION

You can cancel your purchase without any costs up to 3 weeks before the course starts. If you cancel later than three weeks before the course starts, you will be liable for the entire course fee.

If you choose to cancel a purchase, you must notify the Vækstcent office:
kontor@vaekstcenteret.dk

The course fee is a fixed amount that must be paid, regardless of whether you can only attend some of the course days/part courses.

In special cases - in the event of serious illness/accident of the course participant or immediate family member - half of the course fee can be refunded if you cancel later than three weeks before the course starts. An application for this must be made in writing to the Vækstcenteret no later than 14 days after the course starts. It is not the course provider who decides on the application. The Vækstcenter is liable for the course fee in the event of a course cancellation.
